DID YOU KNOW?

Utah libraries offer vital digital access and resources to their communities.

- 94% of Utah libraries offer access to online job and employment resources
- 100% of Utah libraries provide access to online homework assistance
- 100% of Utah libraries provide access to E-books

Utah has 125 libraries, which were visited 19,142,011 times, with 3,337,830 public Internet computer uses.
Public libraries build digitally inclusive communities through access to broadband, technology, training, and services.

[ACCESS]
- 100% of libraries offer free WiFi

[ADOPTION]
- 100% of libraries offer technology training

[APPLICATION]
- 100% of libraries offer education programming
- 100% of those provide summer reading programs
- 100% of libraries offer workforce development
- 78% of those assist patrons with applying for jobs
- 72% of libraries offer civic engagement programs
- 100% of those assist patrons complete government forms
- 64% of libraries offer health and wellness programs
- 22% of those assist patrons with healthy lifestyle development

DIGITAL INCLUSION is the ability of communities to provide opportunity for all in a digital age, and is comprised of 3 overlapping aspects:
- ACCESS to infrastructure
- ADOPTION of digital technologies
- APPLICATION of those technologies for community benefit

Data collected in 2013. For more information and citations: digitalinclusion.umd.edu/references

* Percentages are derived from percentage of libraries that indicated that they offered programs in respective domain areas.